

LAUGH YOUR WAY THROUGH VALENTINE'S WITH TOP ZIMBABWEAN COMEDIAN

LAUGH your way through Valentine's weekend with Zimbabwe's top stand-up comedian Carl Joshua Ncube - and support a good cause at the same time - by being at his first show of the new year, Wild Wild Valentines, in Victoria Falls.

The unique open air performance, which will be held at the amphitheatre at Victoria Falls Safari Lodge at 6.30pm on Saturday, February 13, is in aid of the amazing work done by the Victoria Falls Anti-Poaching Unit (VFAPU), with proceeds going to this cause, Ncube said.

"People can expect to fall in love again and learn about our beautiful country from a conservation perspective," Ncube said.

"One of the things I love about Victoria Falls is the huge effort towards sustainable tourism, which is why I love the fact that VFAPU is ensuring that future generations can also enjoy the beautiful animals that we enjoy today.

"Even though I'm personally terrified of stuff like game drives, which makes for interesting comedy, as I do hope to overcome that fear, and I'm sure many people feel the same way, " he said.

Africa Albida Tourism chief executive Ross Kennedy said: "It will be wonderful to have Carl Joshua Ncube with us again in Victoria Falls this weekend – fun, laughter, humour and all for a very special cause – VFAPU!"

Victoria Falls Safari Lodge is the flagship property of Africa Albida Tourism hospitality group.

Tickets cost $10. For more information phone (013) 43211 -20
