

Honeymoon CALENDAR

The time of year you choose to get married will affect your choice of honeymoon. We've rounded up our favourites for each month

JADE MOUNTAIN

JANUARY

Jade Mountain, St Lucia

There is no place more romantic than the open-air sanctuaries at Jade Mountain, St Lucia. With the fourth wall entirely absent, Jade Mountain's sanctuaries are stage-like settings from which to admire the full glory of St Lucia's Pitons, and of course, the Caribbean Sea. Lovebirds can watch the sun set over the ocean with a glass of crisp Champagne from the privacy of their own infinity pool that appears to tumble off the edge of the hotel. The owners of the hotel have reported that couples often do not leave their suite for the entirety of their stay... we can understand why!

Victoria Resort & Spa, Mauritius

Get 'beachy' keen in Mauritius on your honeymoon at Victoria Resort & Spa, which launches the island's first swim-up suites as part of a brand new adults-only wing, opening this month. With eight resorts located on the idyllic isle of Mauritius, Beachcomber provides the perfect setting for time together as a couple. Combining the island's abundant natural beauty with refined luxury, their properties represent the epitome of tropical paradise in the sparkling Indian Ocean.

2

FEBRUARY

Tivoli Palacio de Seteais, Sintra, Portugal

A beautiful 18th-century palace, set at the foot of the verdant Sintra mountains, the enchanting Tivoli Palacio de Seteais epitomises romance. With just 30 individual guest rooms, all exquisitely decorated, stunning ballrooms and salons adorned with beautifully restored tapestries and frescos, and splendid period architecture at every turn, this hotel sits within the rolling hills of Sintra, against the backdrop of the Pena Palace. Guests can wander through the extensive palace gardens, get lost in one of many mazes or explore Sintra by horse and carriage.

Mirihi Island, Maldives

Mirihi Island is a barefoot luxury boutique hotel located in the South Ari Atoll, just a 30-minute sea plane from Male, Maldives. Combining modern and traditional elements, the small paradise island offers 37 stylish rooms, including 30 gorgeous over-water villas. It is so romantic that the team are often preparing for last minute, unplanned marriage proposals from guests who get swept up in the romance! The emerald gem is surrounded and protected by a spectacular house reef with coral and fish in a myriad of colours; guests can expect to see white and black tip reef sharks, octopuses and green turtles. Mirihi Island's facilities include a water sports centre, an in-house diving school, a fully equipped, state-of-the-art fitness centre and the Duniya Spa.

MARCH

Hilton, Seychelles

With BA set to launch new direct flights to the Seychelles from March 2018, Hilton invites you to discover this paradise across three exceptional properties. Hilton Seychelles Labriz Resort & Spa is the only hotel on Silhouette Island, giving guests the impression they're on a private island. The resort is nestled among spectacular mountains, making it a nature lover's paradise. Guests can spend their days hiking through the rainforest, diving in the rich marine ecosystem, fishing in the shallows or out at sea and cycling around the island. Hilton Seychelles Northolme Resort & Spa, one of the first hotels to be built on Mahé Island, welcomes guests 13 years of age and over. The hotel is the only location in the north of Mahé with infinity pool villas overlooking the Indian Ocean, offering guests the best sunset views.

Conrad Maldives Rangali Island

March is the best time to spot manta rays in the Maldives and one of the only resorts where you can watch manta rays without getting wet. During the manta season, Conrad Maldives also offers dives to the nearby Manta Point, which is a manta cleaning station about 10 minutes by boat from Rangali Island. On top of this, the resort is home to spectacular over-water villas that offer some of the most breathtaking oceanic views in the Maldives. Conrad Maldives is home to the world's first all-glass undersea restaurant called Ithaa, where couples can dine five metres below the sea's surface, taking in the 180-degree panoramic views of the stunning coral gardens.

La Sablonnerie, Sark, Channel Islands

Set on the southern side of the island of Sark, La Sablonnerie offers 22 charmingly individual rooms, including a romantic honeymoon suite, within its characterful farmhouse walls. Savour a Sark cream tea in the garden by day, then enjoy a glass of Champagne by the roaring fire in the evening and indulge at the 16th-century restaurant, which is famed for its lobster dishes. As night falls, La Sablonnerie's remote location comes into its own as the clear night sky becomes a treasure trove for stargazing. And if you thought an island getaway couldn't get any more romantic, you'd be wrong. After arriving on the island by boat, you won't be jumping into a taxi to reach the hotel - there are no motor cars on Sark, so guests begin their getaway at a more leisurely and far more idyllic pace, taking in the scenery as they travel by horse and carriage to La Sablonnerie.
